It is said that the on the investors and the brokers, and would not ordinarily be considered. This is espe the chief trouble with most of the would-be buyers is that they happen to want certain kinds of build ings in localities where there are none of the sort For instance, some men who want to buy threestory houses insist upon having them in districts where there are only four-story dwellings, and if they at last make an offer almost always make one on the idea of a three-story price, so to speak, and

Some of the West Side brokers are having an especially hard time. According to one report there are 500 new houses for sale between Sixty-eighth and One-hundred-and-fourth-sts. The prices range from $38,500 to $120,000, and the total value is estimated at over $15,000,000. In spite of this builders keep right on putting up dwellings by the dozen. If they would leave off for a while, it is probable that it would have a good effect on the market.

Last Tuesday the Board of Directors of the Real Estate Exchange met. The report and balance sheet for the last year were submitted. The accounts show that after an outlay on the buildings amounting to $2,631 44, there remains a balance of $8,499.71, together with $1,559 standing to the credit of the sinking fund. The dividend declared amounts to $7,500, and $2,000 is to be devoted to a reduction of the mortgage to $73,000. The balance is to be

The report of the Financial Committee, recommending a dividend of 1/2 per cent, was read and adopted. Rules Nos. 21 and 22, which forbid auctioneers to conduct sales elsewhere than at the exchange, were recinded. The report to the stock holders, showing a cash balance of $19,050 10, was read and adopted. The report of the committee for extending the usefulness of the exchange also favored a board of brokers, with exclusive rules and privileges, and with separate rooms. A combrokers' and agents' claims were appointed.

AN ESCAPED CONVICT GIVES HIMSELF UP. Chicago, Nov. 24.—After wandering a fugitive from fifteen years, Samuel Carson, an escaped convict from the Jefferson City (Mo.) prison, surrendered himself yesterday to Captain Porter, of the United States Secret Service, in this city. Carson is broken down in health, and is tired of being continually in fear of arrest. Moreover, he has learned within the last two weeks that over, he has learned within the last two weeks that he has fallen heir to a fortune of $10,000 by the death of his parents. Now he wants to go back to serve out the rest of his term, five years. He also hopes that with the aid of the money he has fallen heir to he can employ attorneys who will secure him a pardon. Since his escape from prison, Carson declares, he has led an honest life. Ten years of the fifteen during which he has been an ex-convict he had lived in Chicago. He was sentenced in 1876 to a term of eight years in the Missouri State Penitentiary, and escaped after serving three years.
